E-loyment May 17 2021 Introduction: Why this book now? E-Ployment: Living & working in the cloud: a personal journey Here's what Lynn Franks, Women's Empowerment Guru and Business Women, has to say about it: 'Ad agencies and marketing service companies should be extremely nervous right now about the freelance networks going out to compete with them. Networks made up of people achieving a better work/life balance, becoming more free and taking control of their own lives and future. This book tells you why they're succeeding and how you could too.' E-Ployment tells the story of UP THERE, EVERYWHERE, the global cloud based agency, and a revolutionary new business model, a model that will be applied to even more service industries in the future. We all know that things seem to be converging more and more as our personal and work lives becoming increasingly intermingled. Today, we think nothing of watching a fun video on YouTube at 10 in the morning or answering business emails at 10 at night. The challenges of picking the kids up from school mid afternoon and delivering them to their various activities has to be balanced with managing a job. This is the picture for many of us who work in service industries. The world of work has to change and traditional employment is fast becoming a thing of the past. The cloud and digital tools we've come to take for granted offer us more independence than ever before. We're discovering that we can take control of our own lives and futures. Read about it in E-Ployment. Living & working in the cloud: a personal journey

Life and Suicide Following Brain Injury Jun 17 2021 Life and Suicide Following Brain Injury tells the story of Tom, a 43 year-old man who acquired a brain injury from a road traffic accident at the age of 22. Tom survived but went on to take his own life 20 years later. As a vulnerable adult with mental health issues and long-term difficulties with substance misuse, this book tells Tom's story from his early childhood through to his death. In telling Tom's story, the author- a researcher in the brain injury field and Tom's sister- identifies the multiple suicide risk factors as well as the lack of understanding and inadequate service provision for people with complex needs following TBI. His story serves as a harrowing example of what can go wrong when timely intervention and support is not forthcoming, identifying a multitude of risk factors and possible points of intervention to improve care in the future. This book provides insight to professionals and academics across health and social care in the risks of suicide associated with TBI. It also provides support for those who have experienced the grief of losing a survivor to suicide, or those struggling to support a survivor who is suicidal.
